CITIZEN SUICIDES

Albert Edward Gilmore Passes by His Own Hand

Saturday was a bad day in Vulcan, for no matter what the circumstances the conditions which have death as a result are the regret of everybody. On the afternoon of the day mentioned Ed. Gilmore was found dead in bed at his home, and there was evidence that he had been dead for several hours. An empty bottle and a note left explained the cause of it all. Dr. Carson, the coroner, deemed an inquest unnecessary. Deceased has been in business in Vulcan for two years or more as an undertaker, and things with him of late have not been well. Sympathy with those who are caused to mourn is general, and the more because of the circumstances of the sad event. The body was taken to Calgary, when it will be buried beside that of his father, whose death took place only two weeks ago.

BASEBALL LEAGUE

Vulcan Loses One to Barons and One to Champion

Since our last report Vulcan ball team has played two league games and lost both of them. It just looks as though we can't win a game. And what is the poor newspaper man going to do. We are dead anxious to say some nice things about the boys, but we cannot. However, we refuse to be harsh. We are promised the addition of a few new and somewhat of a shake-up in the team, and here's hoping that the loyal fans who have stuck so far will still stick, and we have a hunch that a few games will yet be won.

The first disaster of the week was at Staveland, where Barons, with Pendergrast pitching, handed us a shut-out, their tally being six. Seaman, a new man, started in the box for Vulcan, but he failed to deliver, and he was replaced by Willard Love, who is the mainstay of our gang, and he performed splendidly. Barons earned their victory.

But the game last night with Champion was the worst of the lot. It was awful, and it happened right here in our own yard. The score was 16 to 4, and that is all we have to say. The boys are still game and the fans are with them, and it is great to have friends in time of adversity. Right here is where the turn of luck comes—at least everybody hopes so. Vulcan will have a winning team, and that before long.

Mr. G. Dickinson was a business visitor to Calgary over the week-end.

CHAUTAUQUA

Vulcan Committee Making Ready for Big Event

The representative of Chautauqua was in conference this week with members of the Vulcan committee, and this announcement is evidence of the activity of the committee which has launched a campaign to make Chautauqua this year a greater success than ever.

The dates set for Vulcan are August 5-7-8-9-10-11, and there is a bright outlook. The weather conditions have released the people to a great extent from prolonged anxiety, and there will be a demand for play, entertainment and amusement. It is inherent in human life. Deny it and surreptitious means will be found for its gratification. Gratify it, and more immediate results in character formation follow, possibly than from any other activity. Your program is based on the following idea that, entertainments and amusements, refine life, not make it coarser; laughter is not of the devil. Even a saint may be so entertained that he forgets the cares and worries of life, without falling from grace. Joy, gladness, beauty, melody—these entrance and invigorate, enthral and inspire. They recreate, educate and entertain. There is no "morning after." There are no regrets.

E. E. Southgate will for the next six weeks be the official in charge of the C.P.R. station and railway business at this point. Mr. Southgate is known to many here, having been for some time in charge at Ensign.

The property committee of the school board have made an inspection of the school buildings and premises, and on their report arrangements will be made for necessary repairs and improvements.

Last week friends of Mr. Luther Laws, of Reid Hill, reported his illness at this office. We join his many friends in the hope that by the time this report will have been published he will again be among the well and the strong.

Mr. and Mrs. Schagel, who have been residing at Minneapolis for some time, returned to Vulcan on Sunday, having made the trip by automobile. Mrs. Schagel left here last fall for Rochester, where she underwent an operation.

Well folks, have you given any thought to the matter of a plowing match at Vulcan? The idea is not ours, but it is a good one. It has been suggested that the implement dealers might take a hand in promoting such an event.

TOWN COUNCIL

Meeting of Municipal Board Held on Thursday

The regular monthly meeting of the Council was held on July 6th. Present, Mayor Butchart and Councillors Dewie, Elves, Stack, Mays, Walker.

Provincial Health Inspector presented report on his inspection of the sanitary condition of the town. The same was very favorable, and was accepted and filed.

Residents in the vicinity petitioned for a street light at this corner of Apollo street and Railway avenue. Settlement of the matter was deferred.

By-law No. 29, to authorize the issue of debentures to the amount of $5000.00, and By-law No. 28, to establish a public library, having received the required assent of the ratepayers, were finally passed by the council.

The tax rate for 1922 was struck as follows: Municipal 40 mills; school, town 72 mills, rural 8 mills; business tax 7 per cent; supplementary tax, 1.72. The rate in town will aggregate about 113 mills.

The statement of the revenues and expenses of the Dominion Day celebration, showing a splendid profit, was presented, and was accepted by council.

Council decided that a proper fence or railing was required in connection with the baseball diamond at the exhibition park, and authorized the erection of same as soon as possible.

The rent of the booth to the Trail Rangers on celebration day was rebated, and this will add about $25. to the boys' profits.

D. H. Galbraith, M.L.A., just back from the East and the convention in Quebec, was a caller at The Advocate on Tuesday. He looks good and feels fine because the crops look good.

Mrs. Henry Newendorp, of Kalispell, Mont., was a visitor in Vulcan last week, a guest at the home of her brother, Mr. C. B. Shimp. With her was Miss Ruth Newton, of Nanton, a niece.

The last issue of The Alberta Gazette contains the official announcement of the retirement of Dr. A. O. Brown of Vulcan, as coroner. Dr. Brown has not been resident in Vulcan for two years or more, and Dr. Carson succeeded to the position some time ago.

Dr. Wark, on Monday, received by wire the unexpected and sad news of the death of his mother the day previous at the family home in Tara, Bruce County, Ontario. Deceased was seventy years of age and an old and highly esteemed resident of the community. Dr. Wark left at once for the East, driving to Glenora to make the best possible train connections so that he might reach his old home in time for the funeral.

Mr. D. C. Jones, one of the originals of our several wireless operators, is improving his apparatus by the erection of a new aerial, increasing the height and length. What were wonders to us a short time ago are now commonplace, and the changes mentioned are being made to keep pace with the development of radio. Just here we are prompted to remark that perhaps Mr. Jones is the possessor of the only refreshment parlor in the province where radio concerts are given with ice cream sodas and sundae.

Domonion Day was the date of the initial sailing of the Maple Leaf on Sylvan Lake. Mr. Jennejohn has since been home for a day or two, and describes the trip of the boat from Vulcan to the lake, a distance of more than one hundred miles, as having been negotiated without trouble or mishap. Only once was help required, and that to make the steepest hill on the road, and there are some steep ones. The boat, and the method of transport, were the objects of interest all along the route, and the "made in Vulcan" on the stern of the boat gave this town considerable publicity. When on the water the boat went off like a duck, and has since been a source of pleasure to the campers and others at the lake and a means of profit to her owner.

The Advocate has received a copy of the official program of the annual convention of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists. In the list of official delegates appears the name of D. H. Galbraith, M.L.A., of Vulcan. On the front page of the program is a fine photo of an imposing structure, the Macdonald College, Quebec, where the convention was held. With the program came a copy of "The Siesta" a journal published in the interest of the editor by the publicity committee of the E.S.T.A. The Siesta describes itself as "An Agricultural newspaper that is ahead of the leaders. The Siesta is published tri-weekly. It is impartial, partial, and cock-eyed in its views. It is not devoted to uplift. It is handsomely illustrated, but frequently tells the truth. The Siesta is a newspaper. It is scientific in tone and rectangular in form and costs you nothing."

LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. John Dewie left Vulcan last week to visit with friends in High River and Staveland.

Mrs. A. Middleton and Miss Olive and Nellie and Bobby, were all visitors to Calgary last week attending the Exhibition.

Rev. Mr. Brunton and family will holiday for a month at Calgary, joining the colony at the "auto camp" at St. George's Island.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Dowling of Vulcan, have returned from Millarville, where they were visiting with relatives.

A hand satchel, containing only a small mirror, has been found and left at this office, where the owner may have same for the asking.

Mrs. C. B. Shimp was a visitor to Nanton last week, and on her return brought with her little Jessie Mae Sprague for a stay of a day or two.

Member Bobby Spooner, on Monday, received from the Old Country a copy of the "History of England," a gift from a friend in old and historic Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Stack and daughter, left on Tuesday for their old home at Halifax, where they will visit with friends and relations for awhile.

Arrangements are being made for the Orangemen's church service, to be held in the Union church. Rev. Mr. Brunton will preach, and the date will be announced later.

Mr. Jos. Jackson, of Millarville, and the Misses G. and F. Dowling, recently visited with their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dowling, of Vulcan.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dodds, and children, Miss Orton and Miss Tingle, left on Tuesday by automobile for Sylvan Lake, where they will holiday for the next month.

There will be no meetings of the local branch of the Women's Institute during July and August. It is the holiday season for almost everybody and everything.

Dr. Wark, Mrs. Wark and Mrs. Tommy Logan motored over to High River on Wednesday last. High River is a nice place to visit in the summer, and they went over for the pleasure of the trip.

Mr. Stowe, of San Francisco Seminary, will preach at the morning and evening services at the Union church on Sunday next. On the following Sunday Mr. Duncan of Ensign, will preach.

The local papers in the towns for miles around give record of the fine success of the Dominion Day celebration at Vulcan, repeating the expressions of satisfaction of visitors from everywhere in this part of the country.

Two dozen or more Odd Fellows, members of the Vulcan lodge, paid a fraternal visit to the lodge at Lamont, on Friday night. It was the occasion of the installation of the officers of the Lamont lodge by the District Deputy Grand Master, and the interesting ceremonial, and the social features in connection with the event made the visit of the Vulcan members one of profit and pleasure. They had a fine trip and a good time.

Mr. Farmer, we have received our stock of Binder repairs for harvest. Look over your binders and get your repairs early, don't wait until the last minute. We want to give you the best service possible and if you order early, we can give you much better service than if everyone waits until they are ready to harvest. Yours for Service, Henry & Walker.

Comment from many visitors to Vulcan on Dominion Day has again directed attention to the splendid method of paying the prizes at the celebration. A cheque was awaiting the winner as soon as it was won. It is a great idea and popularizes our sports with the athletes and others. W. C. Cooper, of Nanton, who is a real sprinter, won several events, but declining to retain his amateur status, declined to accept money as prizes, and he will be presented with a trophy.

Vulcan gets good publicity through the medium of the Calgary Herald of Saturday, in which there appeared a large photo of local interest. It was the picture of the boat Maple Leaf, mounted on auto trucks, and was taken in Calgary when the trip was being made from Vulcan to Sylvan Lake. The boat is equipped with a Ford engine and the trucks which carried it are Ford trucks, and the Ford people of Calgary value the combination to the extent of having a cut made from the photo for advertising purposes, and besides the wide publicity which the Herald gives the photo will be used in the Ford literature, and incidentally Vulcan will become known all over America as a boat building town, and when Vulcan becomes as widely known as the Ford our reputation is surely made.

Jack Russell, reported in our last issue as having been sent down for ten days on a charge of false pretences, was grabbed as soon as his time was up and on another charge was given three months. There are a string of offences charged against him, and if the sentences continue in the same ratio of increase he never will get out.

Last week we reported the presentation of a bouquet of roses to the editor. Now we have to acknowledge the receipt of a fish—a beauty, caught in the clear waters of Sylvan Lake by Mr. W. F. Jennejohn and eaten in Vulcan by The Advocate man with splendid relish. There is no blending of roses and fishes, but they both have their purposes, and twice blessed is he who presents either to the newspaper man.

Miss Lamman of the domestic science department of the School of Agriculture, on Friday last, at the Union church, delivered an interesting and instructive address to a good audience of ladies. The subject was, "Principles of Correct Dress." Miss Lamman is a splendid speaker and made much of the topic. She appeared here under the auspices of the Women's Institute and the direction of the government. After the meeting all the ladies in attendance were treated to cake and ice cream.

The Advocate this week has printed posters for the amalgamated U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. picnic at Lake McGregor, on Wednesday, July 19th. Last year it was a big success, and this year, under the auspices of the Berry Water, Kirkdale and Reid Hill locals, promises to be bigger and better than ever. There will be a baseball match between Vulcan and Milo for a purse of $50; there will be horse races and races for men, sports for the boys and girls, swimming and boating and everything. Vulcan Citizens' Band will furnish music. The fun starts at one o'clock, and there will be a great time.

Twelve or more of our young lads, members of the Trail Rangers, were anxious and impatient to get into camp. The grub and the lesser important requirements were packed up and the boys were away to the banks of the Bow, some fourteen miles out. They had not figured largely on rain, and that which gave joy and hopefulness to the farmers and the community, had the very opposite effect upon the lads in camp. It rained, and rained hard, two or three times, and the campers got more than soaked. In their own language, they got "fed up" and on Saturday decided to desert the camp, and more than half the bunch who could not get a ride in made the trip on foot, arriving in town tired and hungry, but with a new experience that will not do them any harm. A boy's life is a great life, and our boys are real boys.

WILL you be able to put your boy through college when he grows older? This may be looking ahead a long time, but you can provide for such a future by opening an account in the Bank of Hamilton in his name and adding regularly to it.

VULCAN, ALBERTA

A JUSTLY POPULAR PRINCE

Rarely has a prince received such manifest evidence of his personal popularity with the masses as has been accorded the Prince of Wales. His return to London after his trip abroad was the occasion of a remarkable demonstration.

In spite of the ultra democratic tendencies of the age, there probably never was a time when the reigning sovereign and the heir apparent enjoyed the confidence of the people to such an extent as they do today in Great Britain.

The trip of the Prince of Wales was good strategy from a purely political standpoint. He is a wholesome boy who would be popular whether prince or pauper.—Toronto Telegram.

GOOD ROADS

The Alberta Government has decided to make a bid for this province's share of the Dominion road grant. No previous attempt has been made to qualify for federal aid under the highways scheme, but the matter will now be taken up in the hope of securing from $300,000 to $400,000 this year out of the total $1,500,000 to which Alberta is entitled if it fulfills the required conditions.

Some of the work done on the main highways of the province last year will be included in the mileage qualifying for the grant, it is expected, and a vigorous campaign of new work is now under way. According to the terms of the Dominion Act, the province must spend three times the amount of the grant from its own funds, and the highways accepted as coming up to standard must be built in accordance with specified plans and strictly by contract.

U. S. GOVT. TO SETTLE STRIKE

Canada is almost as much interested in the progress of the coal strike as the United States for last year Canada bought some $80,000,000 worth of American coal. It will therefore interest Canadian business men to know that privately the Government is preparing to intervene in the coal strike early in July. Information obtained here indicates that the Administration is now completely awake to the danger which the country as a whole faces and that it has been giving a great deal of attention to the coal statistics which would seem to indicate that during the coming winter the country as a whole will face the worst coal famine in its history. It is said that while this famine may be lessened by early government intervention, it is now too late to avoid the difficulties which the country will face late in the fall as a direct result of the coal shortage.

Large coal dealers in close touch with the coal situation are warning their clients to take every possible step to obtain coal as soon as possible, as very shortly it will be well nigh impossible to obtain. For while arrangements are said to have been made for the importations of large quantities of British coal, even with Government supervision it is not believed that there will be enough coal to go around.

Premier Lord George announced in the house on July 10th that the cattle embargo debate would take place on July 24th.

Germany will pay all cash installments due this year if a moratorium of two years is given. This is what Germany says. Her word is good, Nit.

The railroad strike of shopmen in the States is now in its crucial stage and national guardmen are on duty under arms in five States. Discontinuance of some of the western lines has been found necessary, while the shops are preparing to open with non-union men.

THE ILLINOIS MINE MASSACRE

(From Literary Digest)

It is fortunate that the United States didn't accept a mandate for Armenia, for "our own massacres will keep us more than busy," exclaims one bitterly ironic editor as he reads the shocking details of the murder of more than a score of strikebreakers at the Lester Coal Mine near Herrin in southern Illinois. "The check of the Bolsheviks has nothing to its shame any blacker than this vengeful assassination of workers by workers," declares the Chicago Evening Post; and The Journal of Commerce of the same city predicts that even a community "accustomed to the occasional labor murder, dynamiting, arson and sabotage" will revolt against the Herrin atrocities. "Now we are having 'frightfulness' of our own in Illinois," remarks the Washington Star; and the Washington Herald pictures Wilhelm Hohenzollern smiling cynically as he reads certain recent dispatches. "Belgium can congratulate herself that it was only Germans and not Illinois coal-miners," suggests the New York Tribune. "Nothing we have ever read of the Russian pogroms, nor of the midnight descents of the Red Indians on settlements of the American pioneers surpasses this Illinois horror in unfeeling ferocity and gloating cruelty," says the Knoxville Sentinel. "Alas, that we should send missionaries to far countries to teach gentle and peaceful savages the ways of civilization," exclaims the Rochester Post-Express. "Deeds as hideous have been done in this country, but never in the name of labor," remarks the New York Globe; and the New York Tribune agrees that "only when men have resorted to lynching has there been a comparable exhibition of blood lust."

"Until the coal-mine butchery is legally avenged, how can America look another nation in the eye and speak the word 'civilization'?" asks the New York Herald. "The people of the United States will not be a party to massacre," declares the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune; and the Detroit Free Press agrees that "the whole country has a right to demand punishment, swift and complete." Yet there is reason to fear, notes the Milwaukee Sentinel, that "no legal redress will follow this bloody massacre," since "it is reported that 'no witnesses can be found,' and that it will be impossible to obtain evidence against any individual that will stand in court."

Press dispatches from Herrin inform us that after being under fire from the rifle of nearly 5,000 union miners all night of June 21st, and having fourteen of their number killed, the non-union workers in the Lester strip mine raised a white flag at daybreak of June 22nd and surrendered with their arms. Details of what followed are furnished by an Associated Press correspondent, who writes:

Open statements from scores of persons on the streets here were to the effect that the workingmen surrendered at the first onslaught and, after having been tied into groups of three and six, were cruelly massacred, told to run a gauntlet of rifle fire, only to be shot to death at distances of a few feet when, wounded, one or two of a group would fall and drag the others to the ground; stabbed and hacked to death with knives, beaten with clubs and at least three of them hanged. "Out in a road near the mine, six men tied together, all of them wounded by bullets and blows, lay in a scorching sun, while hundreds of men and women laughed at their pleas for water.

"One of the men, his face bloody and one shoulder shot away, apparently was within a few minutes of death."

"Please boys, give me a drink," he moaned.

"A laugh from the hundreds of spectators was the only reply."

"The correspondent rushed to a house for water, and when he returned he was forced by a crowd and quickly drawn pistols and told to keep away."

"When the man begged again for water, 'For God's sake,' a young woman with a baby in her arm placed her foot on the mangled body and said:

"I'll see you in hell before you get any water."

"The men apparently had been dragged down a rock road behind an automobile. Their clothes were torn and places of gravel were imbedded in their mangled flesh."

WORKED BOTH WAY

"Here's a wonderful thing!" said the fascinating widow. "I've just been reading about a man who reached the age of forty without learning to read or write. He met a woman, and for her sake he studied hard and made a scholar of himself in two years!"

The disillusioned suitor smiled sourly.

"That's nothing," he said. "I know a man who was a profound scholar at forty. Then he met a woman, and for her sake made a fool of himself in two days."

Loyalty Basis of all Civilization

Loyalty is the foundation upon which the whole structure of civilization rests. Loyalty to one's country, loyalty to one's state, loyalty to one's city, loyalty to one's business associates, loyalty to one's friends! Loyalty is essential to the ordinary progress of the world. Without it the world must be chaos.

There would be no stable government in the world were it not for the loyalty of the people to their government. There would be no successful business enterprise on the face of the globe were it not for the loyalty of the men and women who are connected with it. No church could exist for a month were it not for the loyalty of its members. The sacredness of the home would be a myth were it not for the loyalty of the members of the family group.

The loyalty of a people to its government is based partly upon sentiment and partly upon the recognition of an obligation that a people owes to its government. A people that has the benefit of good government owes a duty to that government. Those who do not recognize this duty and perform it voluntarily are compelled by law to do so. The man or woman who is protected by the government in the pursuit of life and happiness, must contribute in money and service toward the support of the government. The man or woman who, under the protection of his government which preserves law and order, is able to accumulate property, must pay taxes on that property to help maintain the government which has protected him or her. In time of war the government has the right to call upon its citizens to take up arms in its defence.

LOYALTY MORAL OBLIGATION

In governmental affairs these things are regulated by law, and the man who receives the benefit of orderly government is required to fulfill the obligation which that entails, but in the ordinary affairs of life, loyalty is a moral rather than a legal obligation. There are laws which prevent a man from stealing from his employer or his business associates, but there is no law that requires him to be loyal to them. The success of a business institution, however, depends more upon the loyalty of its employees than upon the laws which prevent them from stealing its money. Likewise the stability of a government depends more upon the loyalty of its people than upon the laws which compel them to fulfill their obligation to the government.

It is equally true that the prosperity and growth of every individual community is dependent upon the loyalty of the people who live in it. Every citizen owes an obligation to his community, and the obligation is a moral as well as a legal one. The good citizen pays his taxes cheerfully and willingly. He serves upon the juries which administer the laws of the community. He fulfills every legal obligation that is imposed upon him by his government, but there is a moral obligation which is of still greater importance to the community. This moral obligation consists in doing everything that is in his power to promote the prosperity and happiness of his community. The man who is enabled to make his living in any community is under a moral obligation to spend his money in such a way as to help his community.

PROSPERITY WORTH PROTECTING

Anything worth having is worth protecting, and if the prosperity of a community is worth anything to the people living in it it is worth protecting. If the chance for a man to earn a good living, to live well, to give his children a good education, is worth anything, it is worth protecting.

There is just one way to protect the prosperity of a community, and that is to keep the community from being drained of its cash—working capital. The only way to do that is for the people of the community to keep their money at home. Every time the citizen of a community sends money away from home to a mail order house instead of spending it in his home stores he is disloyal to his community. It is disloyalty to the merchants only indirectly. It is disloyalty to the community of which the merchants are only a small but a very important part.

This is the moral obligation that every citizen owes to his community, just as the payment of taxes and the loyal support of his government are his legal obligations. (Disloyalty of a large body of the citizens spells disaster to any government and disloyalty of any large part of the people to their community is followed inevitably by the downfall of the community. Self-interest, if nothing else, should convince every citizen of the advisability of fulfilling his moral obligation to his community.

"I'm not a friend of yours," replied the little man, truculently, "and I'm not here to listen. I'm waiting to put out the lights and lock up the hall."

home of Mrs. M. Stager. "Come and bring all the children" is what Mrs. Stager said: "Won't that be lovely?" It is suggested that the children come prepared to recite or sing, so we can have a program along with the sports. And this "reminds me". We neglected to mention the sweet little song by Betty Hays, and the nice recitation by Evelyn Phillips, which were part of the program at the meeting at Mrs. Clayton's.

Brant and vicinity has been visited by two of the most beautiful rains the past week which surely has made the farmers rejoice, needless to say our good natured merchants are also rejoicing with us as it may also put a few hard earned dollars in their pockets and less charge bills on their file.

Those who visited the Calgary exhibition from Brant and district were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. D. Harper son, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. H. Christofferson and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. Olsen and family, Mrs. Joe. Heckle, Mrs. L. J. St. Clair and daughter Louise, Mrs. W. Parker, Miss Velma McColman, Mrs. J. Green, Mr. J. Eversman, Mr. G. The members of the Brant local U.F.W.A. desire to extend their thanks to all who so kindly assisted with the entertainment on the evening of June 29. The ladies are very highly gratified by their success both financially and in a social way. They cleared over $50 above all expenses and the community was brought together to have a good time and become acquainted with themselves and see what the local talent could produce in the way of entertainment.

They were not disappointed as each number on the program was thoroughly enjoyed and especially the play as those who were representing each character were so well adapted for just the part which they took; showing splendid judgement in placing them. Also a great deal of credit is due to Mrs. Ira Wilkinson who trained them and was responsible in a large measure for their success. The cast has been invited to give the play at Blackie and will do so in the near future. The real home-made ice cream and cake which were served at the skating rink after the entertainment also made a hit, especially with the youngsters.

Among those who visited the Calgary Fair, were, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Love and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Love and Miss Clara, and Mr. Claire Dunham. The latter made an unusually long stay, queer, isn't it?

Many from Red Cross and vicinity attended the celebration in Vulcan on the 1st. It was a big day—but to many it was spoiled by the fighting in the ball games. Champion, it appears can't be champion players, so they are champion scrappers.

All farmers wear a smile that won't come off these days, and this is what they say, "Best rain in five years, it knows how to rain in Alberta after all." "Like old times, eh?" They also talk of 20-25 bushel crops, if the hail don't hit us. "There is always something to keep the rabbits tail short."

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Journey and Mr. W. G. Peterson motored over to Nanton on Sunday, the 2nd inst. where they joined Mrs. Peterson at an Old-Timers' Picnic. They returned home Sunday evening.

The Redlandview Women's Institute met Thursday the 6th inst. at the home of Mrs. R. G. Love. A goodly number of members and a few visitors were present to hear the lecture by the government lecturer, Miss Lammiman, which was well worth hearing being practical and interesting. Her subject was "Correct Dress". She also gave some helpful hints on Home Dressmaking, showing how to make a dress for any figure and costing very little. Miss Lammiman was asked a number of questions on divergent subjects, and proved herself quite capable of talking on any. She also spoke of the Olds Agricultural College of whose staff she is a member. Anyone wishing to send a girl to a college of this sort, which has a practical and varied curriculum, would not hesitate to do so after coming under the influence of her fascinating personality.

The next Institute meeting is to take the form of a Children's Day. At the

BERRYWATER NEWS

A meeting of the U.F.W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Billy Hill, Wednesday, June 28. Although rain threatened it didn't prevent a large attendance. Umbrellas were in use which hadn't enjoyed a good rain storm for years. At 2:30 Mrs. Hill gave a demonstration on the making of a Lady Baltimore cake, which was watched with keen interest. Informal discussion took place as the butter and husband motored to Edmonton where beaten and etc. As soon as the cake was in the oven the company adjourned to another room and the meeting proper began. Several items of business were brought up. It was decided instead of having sewing meetings once a month, to appoint a sewing committee of four to assist some neighbour. These committees will be changed monthly.

Arrangements were made for the purchasing of a coffee boiler, 500 paper plates and the making of cheese cloth bags of uniform size for coffee containers. Mrs. J. K. McLean and Mrs. J. Douglas have charge of this latter item.

After the business part of the meeting was completed Mrs. McBride gave a paper which ably opened up a subject of vital interest "How Shall I Answer My Child's Questions Concerning Life, Truthfully or Evasively?" At the close of the paper Mrs. McBride asked for questions and considerable discussion ensued. The subject was followed up in the roll call by personal experience or ideas being given on the subject. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. McBride for the able way in which she dealt with a difficult subject.

To finish up the lunch, the Lady Baltimore cake was served along with ice cream. Both were delicious. And everyone enjoyed driving home in a nice heavy rain.
